

See what people are saying about Chad Magendanz...

"Chad has a proven ability to find common ground, build consensus, and move forward around a shared vision."

– Sen. Rodney Tom (D)
Senate Majority Leader

"He's a smart guy, he understands education, and he cares about kids."

– Rep. Ross Hunter (D)
House Appropriations Chair

"No question that Magendanz, whom The Seattle Times previously endorsed in the primary election, should be returned to office. He's quickly proven to be one of the clearest thinkers in the Legislature, particularly on education and transportation."

– The Seattle Times
8/22/14 Endorsement

"Magendanz's opponent, David Spring, touts himself as the only candidate opposed by both the Democratic and Republican state parties. The North Bend Democrat does not offer a vision or ideas to match Magendanz."

– The Seattle Times
7/15/12 Endorsement

"We're impressed with Chad's commitment to public safety and communities that he serves."

– King County Police Officers Guild
9/26/12 Endorsement

"Magendanz knows the Washington education system from all sides and has worked diligently to promote accountability and quality education for years. Chad expertly ties together the ability for economic growth in this state to the need for a well educated and supported workforce. He will be a persistent and dedicated advocate on behalf of education in Olympia."

– League of Education Voters
5/29/12 Endorsement

Rated "OUTSTANDING" – Municipal League of King County
Rated "OUTSTANDING" – Citizens Alliance for Property Rights
Rated "RECOMMENDED" – NARAL Pro-Choice Washington
