

A True Moderate

Chad voted more independently than 93% of the Legislature during his two terms in the House. He believes good policy always comes before partisan politics.

Socially Progressive

When social issues come to the House floor, he votes pro-choice and pro-environment. He's earned a reputation for putting kids first and building bipartisan coalitions to tackle big problems like:

- ✓ Education funding
- ✓ School choice
- ✓ High tech skills gap
- ✓ Cybercrime
- ✓ Clean energy
- ✓ Electric vehicles

Fiscally Responsible

He opposes:

- ✗ Income tax
- ✗ Capital gains tax
- ✗ Carbon tax
- ✗ Head tax
- ✗ Septic tax
- ✗ Road tolls

He supports:

- ✓ 2/3rds to raise taxes
- ✓ 4-yr balanced budget
- ✓ Building road capacity

Chad Magendanz: A Life of Service and Commitment to Community

Lifetime of Service

Chad earned an electrical engineering degree from Cornell University with a Navy ROTC scholarship. He was commissioned in the U.S. Navy and served with distinction from 1985 to 1997 as a nuclear submarine officer.

Innovator and Inventor

Chad worked for 10 years as a full-time software developer at Microsoft, shipping 16 products and earning over 20 patent awards. He's currently CXO in a data analytics start-up and teaches high school computer science.

Love of Family, Dedication to Community

Chad and his wife of 29 years, Galen, have lived on Tiger Mountain for 23 years. They are proud parents of two boys, both computer science majors at the University of Utah and MIT.

Adventurer and Nature Lover

From summiting beautiful Mt. Si to competing in triathlons, Chad is an avid outdoorsman, cyclist and electric vehicle enthusiast.

Proven Leader

Chad was elected to caucus leadership and selected as a ranking committee member in his first term. He has chaired several joint legislative committees on education and technology.

Education for a Better Future

Chad served as president of the Issaquah School Board before being elected to the State House in 2012. He has led negotiations to increase school funding, raise graduation requirements, and promote school choice. His budgets doubled state K-12 funding over 8 years while actually reducing net school levy rates in 44% of districts.
