

See what people are saying about Chad Magendanz...

"I've worked with Chad for many years in his role with Issaquah Schools. He's a smart guy, he understands education, and he cares about kids."

– Rep. Ross Hunter (D)
House Ways & Means Chair

"Chad has a proven ability to find common ground, build consensus, and move forward around a shared vision. He's devoted to our children and the future of this state, and I look forward to working with him in Olympia."

– Sen. Rodney Tom (D)
Senate Higher Ed. Chair

"Magendanz's opponent, David Spring, touts himself as the only candidate opposed by both the Democratic and Republican state parties. The North Bend Democrat does not offer a vision or ideas to match Magendanz."

– The Seattle Times
7/15/12 Endorsement

"We're impressed with Chad's commitment to public safety and communities that he serves."

– King County Police Officers Guild
9/26/12 Endorsement

"Magendanz knows the Washington education system from all sides and has worked diligently to promote accountability and quality education for years. Chad expertly ties together the ability for economic growth in this state to the need for a well educated and supported workforce. He will be a persistent and dedicated advocate on behalf of education in Olympia."
