During Chad's tenure the Issaquah School District has achieved the highest rating for education investment – student achievement for dollar spent. With the lowest administrative overhead in King County, the best credit rating in the state, and ten consecutive clean state performance audits, he's shown how to make every dollar count.

In addition, he'll protect our civil liberties and property rights with the same enthusiasm that he's protected our tax dollars:

"I will fight to defend the constitutional rights and civil liberties of our citizens. This includes a woman's right to choose, balanced with respect for religious beliefs and parental rights."

– Chad Magendanz

"I've worked with Chad for many years in his role with Issaquah Schools. He's a smart guy, he understands education, and he cares about kids."

– Rep. Ross Hunter (D)
House Ways & Means Chair

"Chad has a proven ability to find common ground, build consensus, and move forward around a shared vision. He's devoted to our children and the future of this state, and I look forward to working with him in Olympia."

– Sen. Rodney Tom (D)
Senate Higher Ed. & Workforce Chair
